

FOSTERING INNOVATION AND EXCELLENCE FOR CAPE ELIZABETH SCHOOLS

CAPE ELIZABETH EDUCATION FOUNDATION

 SPRING 2008 UPDATE

Pasta with Purpose

Carb-up and feed your noodle!

CEEF is partnering with the PCPA and MSPA to promote the many grants that have been awarded by their organizations. On May 31st, the night before the Pond Cove Challenge 5K Race, CEEF will host a spaghetti dinner & grants celebration - Pasta with Purpose, Carb-up and Feed Your Noodle! Spaghetti, sauce, meatballs, salad & bread are being provided by locally-owned Willows Restaurant & Market Fresh.

While dinner is being served in the Pond Cove cafeterium, CEEF, PCPA and MSPA grant recipients will display and demonstrate their various initiatives and programs in the Pond Cove gym. Interested in seeing how a Smart Board works? Have you always been curious about Lego Robotics? Do you LOVE the marriage of music & technology? Come and see where much of our fundraising is going and check out these extraordinary grant recipients and their innovative programs and projects. All three schools will be represented.

Admission to the dinner is free for 6 yrs. and under, $5 per person and $15 per family; 5:30-7:30 PM. Pick up your 5K race packet when you come for spaghetti! To register for the Pond Cove Challenge 5K, you may use the
